From the Editor

Dear Families and Readers,

Welcome to the very first edition of Voices of the Pack, a magazine created entirely by the talented young writers of our school!

Over the past several weeks, students from Kindergarten through 8 have been working hard in their writing groups to explore what magazines are, how they're put together, and all the different types of writing they can include. From exciting articles and fun facts to comics and creative stories, this magazine is a celebration of student voice, curiosity, and creativity.

Each piece you'll find here began with a spark of an idea, and students used real-world writing processes—brainstorming, drafting, revising, designing, and publishing—to bring their work to life. For many, this was their first time designing in Canva. You can see the pride they took in their work and the excitement they got from writing the words, choosing the pictures, and deciding on the layout of their contribution.

We hope you enjoy flipping through these pages as much as we've enjoyed creating them. This magazine is a snapshot of who we are, what we're learning, and how our voices grow stronger when we share them.

Thanks for reading,

MANGA AND ANIME

MY RATING ON THIS ANIME ★★★★★

by Lexi

My parents recommended that I watch the show One Piece. I was having nothing to watch and they said, "This is a cool show!" I was stubborn and I didn't want to, but I finally got bored enough to try, so I watched it. I realized it was pretty cool. Read my review below.

ONE PIECE

CHARACTERS

Luffy is the main character. He is a rubber man. Nami is the ship's navigator. Zoro wants to be the world's greatest swordsman. Sanji is the ship's cook. Chopper is the ship's doctor. Chopper is a half-man, half-deer. Usopp wants to be a pirate captain. Robin can read ancient stones.

THE ANIMATION

The animation looks easy to draw. It has a lot of action. I like how they draw the characters. The story lines are pretty good.

HOW DO These authors Do it?

FT. ANA HUANG,
TAHEREH MAFI,
COLLEEN HOOVER, AND LAUREN ROBERTS :)

A step-by-step guide on how to write a new-york times bestseller! (Plus tips!)

100% Fiction No. 1 on Amazon, reallygreatsite.com

Step one: TIME MANAGEMENT

The downfall of writing a novel, is that you have to write it. Meaning you have to set aside time to write.*

Even seasoned authors have a hard time with that!

Step 2: PLANNING

Once the time is put aside, you would need to plan out what you are writing. Again, even seasoned authors have a hard time with this.*

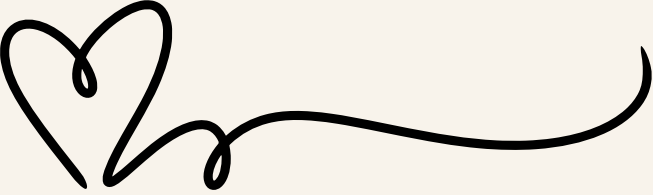

Step 3: BUILD THE WORLD

Each fiction book needs a universe. Mostly because fiction doesn't have a universe to start off of, you need to make one to start off of.*

Step 4: WRITE BELIEVABLE MC'S

Even in a fictional story, the characters of the story should be based off of some reality. A backstory makes characters all the more realistic.*

Step 5: CHOOSE YOUR POV

Decide if you want to write the book in first, second, or third person.

Step 6: HAVE A SOLID BEGINING

Using a hook can make an impact, but only if it stays equally hooking throughout the novel.

Step 7: PROVIDE UNEXPECTED PLOT TWISTS

Its not easy to create a twist that no one could see coming. Taking time to think it through and develop could make the biggest impact on/in your novel.

Step 8: EBRACE THE RE-WRITE

It's ok if the writting process takes more than one try. Starting over is good, but maybe improvements or smaller re-writes, such as a re-writen chapter is what your novel needs to be a bestseller.

Mini collage because why not? these are some of my favorite books/my TBR:)

Every reader is different, so if you like these genres, here's some books you should check out if possible!

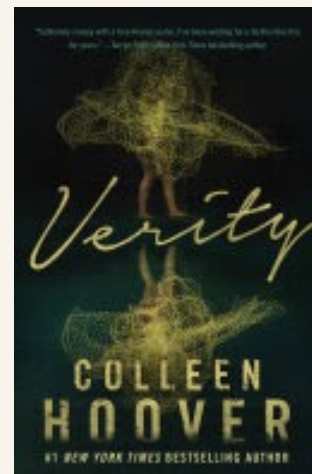

Distopian: if you are into the distopian world of reading, “The Hunger Games” book series is something you might be intrested in. If your looking for something more romancy, while still being under the distopian category, the “Shatter Me” series is the one for you.

Fantasy: If your into the un-realistic verion of life to escape from the reality of normal life, the Powerless Trilogy is the book you should pick up.

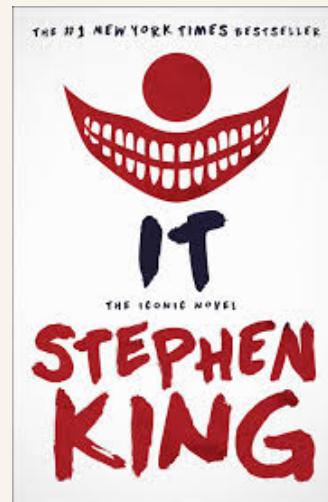

Mystery/thriller: if your looking for a murder mystery that is fiction with a pinch of romance, “Verity” is the book you might like, but if you don't like it, thats okay too.

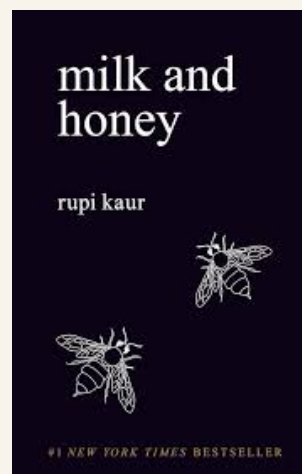

K-Drama: If your looking for a chaotic, but in a good way kind-of book, “To All The Boys I’ve Loved Before” is the book AND tv series recomended.

Horror: if you want to get goosebumps from reading words on paper, ‘IT’ is a long book, but a good one to check out if you havent already.

Poetry: if you like to read, but not full-on life stories, “Milk And Honey” is one to read. it is a little bit for the adult audience, so enjoy it, grown-ups.

Comic books/graphic novel: If you like books that are YA and mostly pictures, the “Amulet” series is one to admire.

Tips For Cat Owners

Why Cats Can't Eat Some Chocolate

Cats might want to eat chocolate and be big back but it's very toxic to them, and it might cause liver failure and vomiting. Chocolate contains caffeine and theobromine. But dark chocolate is more toxic because it contains more cocoa in it. Even a small amount of chocolate can make a cat very ill.

Safe Environments For Cats

You need a safe clean home for cats to live in. You have to make sure you get them food, toys, litter box! And you will need to ensure regular vet visits. And provide daily feeding! Play with your cats daily. But don't make your cats obese.

Foods To Feed Cats(if they don't have any food)

Foods to feed cats if they don't have any left. You can feed them fish, eggs(no oil), bananas, pumkins cheese, cooked meat(no seasoning).

Give your cats daily love

If you constantly ignore your cat they will get very sad. And when you don't give them daily love they will get sad still.

Orion the hunter

Orion is a type of constellation and a hunter in greek mythology with the seeming appearance of a person holding a bow and shield. It's appearance is what makes it symbolize a hunter, with three bright stars/nebula at its center that forms the hunters belt.

It's story is: Orion was a young man who worked as a hunter for King Oinopion, but he was cocky, selfish and arrogant. He bragged that he was a very good hunter and could kill any animal if he wanted to. The earth Goddess, Gala, wanted to protect all nature. She sends in a Scorpion against Orion, which kills him.

Orion's seven brightest stars are: Rigel, Betelgeuse, Bellatrix, and Salph. They form a sort of rectangular shape to the constellation itself. At the center of the constellation lies: Alnitak, Alnilam and Mintaka. Orion's head is marked by an additional 8th star called "Meissa". Overall, every constellation is special in their own ways, and we should know Orion is special for the greek myth and being one of the most prominent constellations in the sky.

VERY FUNNY MEME

is not just a meme!

A video of a girl was posted and it went viral on social media. In the video, a girl is drawing her mom and shares the picture with her mom. The drawing can be seen in the photo to the right. In the video, the mom says the picture is nice. She sarcastically comments about the picture. The video was created in 2019 by a woman named Sonia Teibi.

“Hyperpigmentation is a harmless skin condition in which patches of skin are darker than the surrounding skin.” Hyperpigmentation doesn’t hurt you.

“Hyperpigmentation occurs when cells in skin make too much of pigment called melanin.” This causes your skin to appear dark.

“Hyperpigmentation appears as darkened patches or spots on the skin that make skin look uneven.” hyperpigmentation can be noticeable

“Hyperpigmentation is harmless and may require no treatment at all.”

However, some people may prefer to remove it.

“Hyperpigmentation may appear as freckles, age spots, or larger areas of darkened skin.” In the meme, it looks like a dark circle.
